NARRATIVE:

Bray has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. Her convictions include multiple burglaries, child cruelty: possible injury/death, credit card fraud, theft of personal property, disorderly conduct, and failure to appear. Bray has served multiple state prison terms the longest a six (6) year term for child cruelty:possible injury/death. Bray was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 05th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Bray qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for the charge of burglary meets the criteria for PRCS under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
